
ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA & REQUEST FORM FOR INSTITUTO CERVANTES EXAMINATION CENTERS

General obligations for the examination center:

- Guarantee that, during the validity of the agreement of recognition of the examination center, the technical, academic and legal obligations are fulfilled.
- During the validity of the agreement as an examination center, to communicate to the Instituto Cervantes any substantial variation in the conditions outlined at the signing of the agreement (change in the center's facilities, corporate structure, management team, etc.).
- To disseminate information on the DELE diploma and the CCSE test to candidates in order to encourage their participation in the yearly test dates for each of the exams.
- Promote the value and prestige of the DELE diploma and of the CCSE test.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR DELE DIPLOMA EXAMINATION CENTERS

Among the eligibility criteria for the recognition of new DELE Examination Centers, essential requirements and recommended conditions are outlined as follows:

The following are essential requirements:

1. To be a Spanish as a foreign language (ELE) teaching center or to have the promotion of academic Spanish as part of its objectives.
 2. To have Spanish as a foreign language (ELE) instructors and as well as staff who are those in charge of the examinations.
- Spanish instructor criteria: At least three people employed as teaching staff with experience teaching Spanish as a foreign language who comply with at least two of the following characteristics:
 - Instructors whose first language is Spanish and who are in possession of a degree recognized and approved by the Spanish Ministry of Education, Social Policy and Sport.
 - Instructors whose first language is not Spanish but who hold a degree in Hispanic Language and Literature.
 - Instructors with experience teaching L2 or L/E level Spanish.
 - Instructors that have taken specific training courses for teaching L2 or L/E level Spanish.

- The center must have at least one person in charge of all the academic-administrative processes for the exams.
 - Given that all the documentation utilized in such processes is written in Spanish, it is imperative that the person in charge of the examination center be Spanish-speaking.
 - The person responsible should demonstrate experience in the management and administration of examinations that require complex organization processes.
- The center must have a person with at least one year of experience in IT management.
- Additionally, the administrative and teaching personnel are expected to handle all customer service and processes related to registration of new examination candidates. This implies that the center must have at least two people dedicated to these roles in addition to the academic personnel.

3. Facility capacity and equipment.

- The center must have at least 3 classrooms available with sufficient space for the fulfilment of the examinations, considering that every candidate requires at least a square meter of physical space.
 - A minimum of 3 classrooms is required but the estimated number of candidates indicated in the request form will be used to evaluate this aspect.
- The examination rooms must have:
 - Adequate lighting and ventilation and must be equipped with appropriate furniture for the fulfilment of written examinations.
 - Color and black-and-white printers for examination materials. At least one black-and-white printer in the examination center.
 - Audio play-back devices: CD/audio players of sufficient numbers and no less than the number of examination rooms.
 - Scanner and paper shredder.
 - The recommended scanner model is Fujitsu Scansnap ix500, but if another model is used it should be compatible with the systems at the Instituto Cervantes.
 - There must also be at least one paper shredder.

- Other technological resources: computers with internet access, telephone, printers and sufficient office equipment so that the centers are able to run autonomously.
 - There must be at least 3 computers.
 - It is an essential requirement that those in charge of the centers have email addresses.
 - The web page must be available in at least two languages.

The following conditions are recommended but not required:

- To be an examination center of other certification authorities integrated by ALTE.
- To learn more about the relation between certification authorities integrated by ALTE, please visit their webpage at <http://www.alte.org/>
- FEDELE, CCSE and SIELE centers.
- It would be of value for the center to belong to the FEDELE school network, the network of CCSE centers, or the SIELE network so that, directly or indirectly, they will already have management and administration experience for certification examinations.

The Instituto Cervantes reserves the right to deny the request for a center in the case of another examination center existing less than 2 kilometers away, limited demand for examinations therefore not requiring the opening of another center in the area, or if the requesting center participates in an activity that the Instituto Cervantes deems incompatible with its image and function.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR CCSE EXAMINATION CENTERS

Among the eligibility criteria for the recognition of new CCSE (prueba de Conocimientos Constitucionales y Socioculturales de España) Examination Centers, essential requirements and recommended conditions are as follows:

The following are essential requirements:

1. Be a public or private institution whose area of activity is related to the cultural, social or academic promotion of Spanish.
2. To have a person responsible for the examination center and those in charge of the examinations.

- At least three employees with experience in administering examinations.
- The center must have one person in charge of the processes associated with the administration of examinations.
 - Given that all the documentation utilized in such processes is written in Spanish, it is imperative that the person in charge of the examination center be Spanish-speaking.
 - The person responsible should demonstrate experience in the management and administration of examinations that require complex organization processes.
- The center should have a person with at least one year of experience in IT management.
- Additionally, the administrative and teaching personnel are expected to take care of customer service and processes related to registration of new exam candidates. This implies that at least one person must be dedicated to these roles in addition to the academic personnel.

3. Facility capacity and equipment

- The center must have at least 3 classrooms available with sufficient space for the fulfilment of the examinations, considering that every candidate requires at least a square meter of physical space.

- The examination rooms must have:
 - Adequate lighting and ventilation and must be equipped with appropriate furniture for the fulfilment of written examinations.
 - Color and black-and-white printers for examination materials. At least one black-and-white printer in the examination center.
 - Audio play-back devices: CD/audio players of sufficient numbers and no less than the number of examination rooms.
 - Scanner and paper shredder
 - The recommended scanner model is Fujitsu Scansnap ix500, but if another model is used it should be compatible with the systems at the Instituto Cervantes.
 - There must also be at least one paper shredder.

- Other technological resources: computers with internet access, telephone, printers and sufficient office equipment so that the centers are able to run autonomously.
 - There must be at least 3 computers.
 - It is an essential requirement that those in charge of the centers have email addresses.
 - The web page must be available in at least two languages.

The following conditions are recommended but not required:

- To be an examination center of other certification authorities integrated by ALTE.
- To learn more about the relation between certification authorities integrated by ALTE, please visit their webpage at <http://www.alte.org/>.
- FEDELE, CCSE and SIELE centers.
- It would be of value for the center to belong to the FEDELE school network, the network of CCSE centers, or the SIELE network so that, directly or indirectly, they will already have management and administration experience for certification examinations.

The Instituto Cervantes reserves the right to deny the request for a center in the case of another examination center existing less than 2 kilometers away, limited demand for examinations therefore not requiring the opening of another center in the area, or if the requesting center participates in an activity that the Instituto Cervantes deems incompatible with its image and function.
